

Highlighting African-American Achievers

Dates: February 19- 21 2015

Thursday & Friday

Tour Times: 4pm-8pm

Black Inventors Exhibit

Featuring: The Underground Railroad and 102nd USCT

Museum Comes to Life (Special Guest)

Saturday: February 21, 2015

Time: 12pm-4pm

Cooking Demos, Art , Dance, Vendors and More

Where: Wallace Pruitt Recreation Center
440 Tuckaseegee Road, Charlotte, NC 28208

For more information and to schedule group tours,
please call the center at 704-432-6775
wallacepruittrecreation@mecklenburgcountync.gov

"Black History Month is a seamless part of the national story and is a central part of the narrative of the American past. It's not what we do between Feb1- Feb 28, but how we should be educating our children all year long about the centrality of the black experience in this country and indeed...in the world"

- Dr. Khalil Muhammad; Director, Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, New York

