

Being Mortal: Advance care planning event

Based on the bestselling book by Atul Gawande, MD

Novant Health Hospice and PACE of the Southern Piedmont are partnering to provide a free screening and discussion of the PBS Frontline film, "Being Mortal." Based on the bestselling book by Atul Gawande, MD, this documentary explores the hopes of patients and families facing terminal illness and their relationships with the physicians who treat them.

See the film and be part of an important conversation that brings medical professionals and community members together around a shared responsibility of discussing what matters most to patients and families facing difficult treatment decisions and how to have these conversations ahead of a medical crisis.

Open to the community. Light refreshments will be served.

Please RSVP to Sheri Lowe: sheri.lowe@novanthealth.org or 704-384-8133.
