The DWMC July Membership Meeting will feature the efforts of court administrators, the District Attorney's Office, and the Mecklenburg Council of Elders to support and expand key services for our community. Darwin Rice is the former coordinator of the Self Serve Center in the 26th Judicial District, a resource that empowers people to handle routine legal matters that may not require an attorney. Maria Macron, Founder &

Executive Director of the Mecklenburg Council of Elders, and Robyn Withrow, Assistant District Attorney for the 26th District, are dedicated to supporting and growing Expunction Clinics. These all-volunteer clinics guide applicants who meet specific criteria through a process to expunge their criminal records, allowing them to build productive and successful lives in a myriad of ways, from qualifying for affordable house to securing better employment opportunities.
