LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS®

April 1, 2019

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The League of Women Voters Charlotte Mecklenburg's new Environmental Action Team is sounding the alarm about a late December "technical correction" to the state's stormwater runoff requirements. These changes weaken stormwater regulations across the state, according to environmentalists.

Guest speakers for Lunch with the League, Rusty Rozzelle, Manager of Mecklenburg County's Water Quality Program, and Jordan Miller, Charlotte's Post Construction Stormwater Ordinance Administrator, will discuss the impact of this eleventh-hour revision on issues such as water quality, flooding, erosion, etc.

The public is invited to attend this free program on Wednesday, April 10 at the League's office in the Midwood International and Cultural Center, 1817 Central Ave., Room 210, Charlotte, from 11:30 am until 1:00 pm. Bring a lunch or order one from Jason's Deli and prepare to engage in this crucial conversation. Lunch with the League is part of the LWVCM's monthly Speaker's Series which alternates afternoon and evening events.

For more information and to order a lunch, visit the LWVCM website: <http://www.goleaguego.org/Lunch.html> Lunch orders must be placed no later than 12 pm on Monday, April 8. For questions about lunch orders, go to: margaretsoper@hotmail.com
