There's still work to be done!

Hello Friends,

This week I met families from across the county at meet and greets, coffees and during National Night Out. I heard from a lot of people, and all are focused on one thing: Our kids. I spoke with voters about all that we've accomplished in our schools over the past four years—passing the bond, improving teacher pay, providing our students with more mental health support.

But there's still so much work to do. We are ready to implement the new CMS Strategic Plan. We must work hard to increase equity for the students of CMS. Earnest Winston, our new Superintendent, has a strong team in place. And I am eager to partner with him to ensure that the entire community is all in for kids.

I want to continue working on behalf of our students, but I need your help to do so.

Please consider pitching in \$25, \$50, \$100, or whatever you can afford, so I can continue to fight for our kids.

Thank you,

Elyse

p.s. We have another
