Bonds that don't break

Hello #TeamElyse,

I'm a Teacher Leader at West Charlotte High School. I've gotten to know Elyse Dashew over her tenure on the CMS Board. I've come to know her as a smart, dedicated leader, with an eye for equity, a knack for building bridges, and an incredible ability to listen first, and then act accordingly.

Two years ago, Elyse led the fight to pass a $922 million bond project to improve our public school facilities. As an educator who works each and every day in a schoolhouse built almost 70 years ago, I know this was all about giving students the physical space that sends them the right message: That they matter. That school is a place where students are respected as people, and as learners.

Elyse was a vocal advocate for getting our kids the facilities they deserve, so that they can concentrate on learning. She stood up and fought for the passage of a nearly $1 billion dollar bond.

Now, Elyse needs our help. She's up for re-election and has a lot of voters to reach.

Please consider making a contribution to Elyse's campaign. There's still a lot of work to be done, and we need her there, continuing to lead the charge.

Thanks,

Kevin Poirier
