Queen City Mobile debuts in Charlotte

Queen City Mobile Market is Charlotte's first mobile farmers market bringing fresh foods, convenience and most importantly nutritional education. As a non-profit, we're working to increase food access in local food deserts while encouraging healthy lifestyles. Our motto is 'We Park. You Shop.'

Queen City Mobile Market secured thousands in start-up funds after its founder, Chef Barry Francois, won the Charlotte Global Shapers Business Idea Competition last year. We've graduated from the OrthoCarolina and Queen City Forward Health Care Accelerator. Communities in Schools and Friendship Gardens are just two of our partners helping us create healthier communities. We're set to launch soon in West Charlotte. But, we still need your help. BRIEF and SHU ARE OPENING IN SOUTHEND

Two retail stores will debut in Historic SouthEnd this summer/fall brought to you by "Dan the Shoe Man". BRIEF, a men's underwear, swimwear and loungewear store will redefine how men shop and look. SHU, a ladies shoe, handbag, and accessory store will refocus our attention on accessories.

The two retail stores will be housed within an 8,200+ square feet building located at 1426 S. Tryon Street on the cross streets of S. Tryon and Winona.

Additionally, FLEX, the 3,000+ event space will be utilized for in-house trunk shows, fashion shows, shopping parties and outside parties and events.
