Dear Friends,

Please see the invitation below for a reception and exciting new initiative at the Urban League with partner City Start Up Labs, Entrepreneurs Academy. This exciting initiative is funded by the Rockefeller and Knight Foundations to give young people under the age of 30 years old the opportunity to develop entrepreneurial enterprises.

The Entrepreneurs Academy is part of the Urban League's "At-Opportunity" strategy to build greater financial stability for communities.

I invite you to celebrate and learn.

Patrick

About the ULCC Entrepreneurs Academy

The Urban League of the Central Carolinas, in collaboration with City Startup Labs, will be piloting a program teaching entrepreneurship to young adults under 30 years old, targeting the underserved and underemployed.. The program provides 15 weeks of accelerated instruction and new business incubation.

The Entrepreneurs Academy is now taking applications for the 2014 class for 25 students. The program is seeking quality student and coaching candidates. To apply, email Henry Rock at henry.rock@citystartuplabs.com
