ROUTE 29 SEAFOOD FESTIVAL

CONCORD, N.C. - OCTOBER 4, 2014, 11:00 A.M. - 11:00 P.M.

Route 29 Pavilion, Dayson Diamond Youth Foundation, and RLT Technologies are bringing top grammy award winning R & B singers to the Route 29 Pavilion, 5650 Sandusky Boulevard, Concord, North Carolina, for the first annual Seafood Festival. We will bring families and friends together enjoying good food, fun, and great music!

The festival, is not only replete with a plethora of vendors, but nationally renown Chef Armadeus and Chef Rhodes from the Food Network will be present to judge an exciting seafood competition between students from Charlotte's leading culinary schools.

In honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month and Domestic Violence Awareness Month, a percentage of the proceeds will benefit Susan G. Komen Charlotte and the Women's Commission

Battered Women's Shelter, and select organizations that are supporting human trafficking victims, as well.
