

#MATTERS IN MECKforum

League of Women Voters Charlotte-Mecklenburg

Co-sponsors:

Budget and Tax Center, NC Justice Center, Raleigh
Charlotte-Mecklenburg Association of Educators
Greater Charlotte Alliance of Black School Educators
National Alliance of Black School Educators

"What happens in Raleigh Matters in Mecklenburg:"
N.C. Budget underfunds public school education in Mecklenburg.

Please join us

Saturday, January 10, 2015, 10:00am-11:30am
YWCA, 3420 Park Road, Charlotte

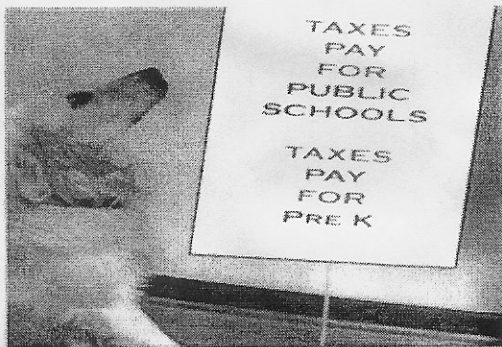

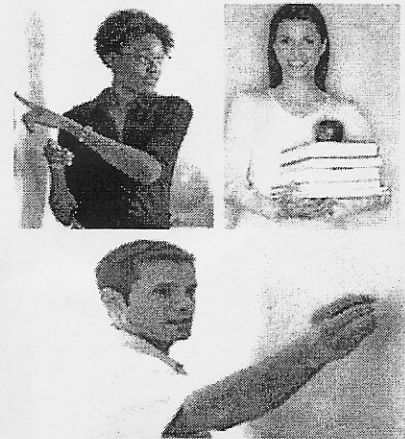

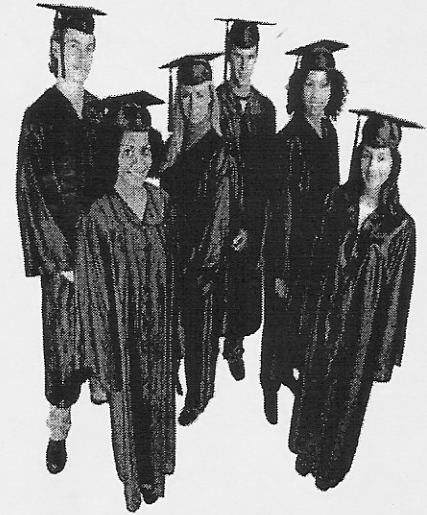

Panel: Ann Clark, Deputy Superintendent CMS, John Dornan,
Founder and former ED Public School Forum of NC, Tazra
Mitchell, Policy Analyst Budget and Tax Center

Why does it matter?

Because a quality, accountable, adequately funded public education system is an investment in ourselves, our quality of life, the economy, and sustainability of a healthy community.

RSVP appreciated:

Mary Klenz, klenzmary@gmail.com or 704-542-9858
Continental breakfast provided.

#MattersInMeck provides information and education "Because what happens in Raleigh matters in Mecklenburg."

Brought to you by the League of Women Voters® of Charlotte-Mecklenburg

For more information, follow us at #MattersInMeck.  