Hello Charlotte!

We are having a NC Women's Sheroes Award Ceremony and would love your help. We know that our state have produced some profound women. Many of them have made us so proud to be mothers, entrepreneurs, scientists, founders, and the list goes on and on. Because March is Women's History Month, we felt that it was necessary to bring those voices to the ones that need it most, our children. On March 28th, from 2-4pm at and along with the Beatties Ford Road Library, we are hosting a very unique event. Three NC women will be awarded, share their story and sit with our youth hosts to celebrate Sheroes Of The Movement. We could really use your help.

1. Nominate powerful NC women that actually attend and has made a significant contribution to all women/ families. Be sure to send her contact information and tell us why you think she is remarkable.
2. Co-sponsor this incredible event. We can use your help with the round-table and providing refreshments for our honorees. We are expecting 150+ people even if you can't participate this year, you can still help.
3. Please consider sharing this event. Our mission is to inspire our young ladies into becoming empowered Sheros. This indeed will take a village. Here's the link on Facebook. <https://www.facebook.com/events/337374256457240>
