Hi Friend, Did you know that May is National Mental Health Awareness Month? With so much going on the news and the stories that you hear, FB posts, many other incidents that end up having some type of light shed on mental health issues. Come out and support those who have suffered and survived.

Come and enjoy some FREE food, networking, and get some exercise as well. We are looking for Vendors who have information regarding mental health, substance abuse and other related topics.

We are looking for Sponsors who want to donate to this mission.

We are looking for WALKERS!!!!!!

Call Joie Cook, Project Coordinator at 704-712-7516 or Pastor Ricou Williams at 980-322-4161 for more information.

This event will take place on Sat., Sept 12, registration begins at 8:00am, at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church, located in the Steele Creek area. This event is sponsored by New Life Purpose Ministries.

Please "Like" us for updated information.
