Townhall Topic: Black Lives Matter
Where is the Church, Synagogue, Temple and Mosque?

You hear the cries of the community saying "What are people of faith doing to address mass incarceration and the brutality of police on citizen crime and black on black crime?" This is an opportunity for people across faith, race and denominational lines to learn lessons from activists in Ferguson as well as local activists who seek social justice for the descendants of slaves who battle the legacy of slavery on every front. If Black lives truly matter it should be evident from the school house to houses of worship. But is this the case? In this region, are we in agreement that "Black Lives Matter"? What is the evidence that we agree? How do we prevent more losses like Jonathan Ferrell and Jericha Formille? More importantly, what can we do on this night to increase the value of black life for all?
