Charlotte Municipal ID's:

A Statement of Welcome

The Democratic Women of Mecklenburg County will hold our next regular monthly meeting on Wednesday July 8 at The Asian Library, 1339 Baxter Street, Charlotte NC. Doors open at 6:30 PM with the meeting starting at 7:00 PM.

Our speaker this month is Whitney Smith, Director of Development and Strategic Initiatives with the Latin American Coalition, who will discuss the issue of Charlotte Municipal ID cards. Charlotte's Immigration Integration Task Force recently proposed the creation of a Charlotte Municipal ID to the Charlotte City Council. Municipal ID's have been instituted successfully in several U.S. cities including New York City. The program would have the biggest impact on Charlotte's undocumented immigrant population. Other citizens who may not have driver's licenses, such as the homeless and the elderly, would also benefit.

Come join the Democratic Women to learn more about this important topic. As always, visitors are welcome!
