FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FIRST FEMALE DEAN OF WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL TO SPEAK AT LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS WOMEN'S EQUALITY DAY CELEBRATION AUGUST 26

Suzanne Reynolds, first female dean of the Wake Forest University School of Law, is the keynote speaker at the Elizabeth Hair Memorial Women Equality Day celebration sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Charlotte-Mecklenburg. The event takes place Wednesday, August 26, from 6:30-8:00 p.m. at the Midwood International and Cultural Center Auditorium, 1817 Midwood Avenue in Charlotte. Reynolds became Dean effective July 1, 2015. A 1977 graduate of the Wake Forest Law School, Reynolds specializes in family law and co-founded a domestic violence program recognized on a national level for bringing legal assistance to the underprivileged.

The League will pay special tribute to the late Elizabeth Hair, first woman elected to Mecklenburg County Commission and long-time champion of women's rights in Charlotte-Mecklenburg.

Women's Equality Day is celebrated August 26 of each year to commemorate ratification of the 19th Amendment, which gave women the right to vote in the United States.

The event is open to the public. Live entertainment and a dessert social are included. A donation of $20 is requested and can be paid at the door.
