CRC Committee Members, Family, and Friends,Please see the special invitation below from Pastor Clifford A.Jones, Sr., Senior Minister of Friendship Missionary Baptist Church.I pray that this note finds you loving life! You are invited to attend a tour on Tuesday, August 25th at 11am in the sanctuary of the faceted glass window in the sanctuary facilitated by Pastor Jones. Our guests will include members of Providence Baptist Church, St. Johns Baptist Church and possibly more!Let me share a bit of background information regarding one of many sessions that begins on August 25th with the churches and possibly more listed above. We [Bro. Ed Holland and myself] received a call from David Jordan of Providence Baptist Church regarding an ongoing partnership of authentic dialogue about racism in this country which was prompted by the recent tragedy in Charleston, SC.As a result of the conversation with David Jordan of Providence Baptist Church, our first session together will be a tour of the faceted glass windows by Pastor Jones which includes African-American history, history of Friendship Missionary Baptist Church and theological reflections which is inclusive of the representations of the faceted glass windows in our sanctuary.

Our initial fellowship in the sanctuary will conclude with Edwin Holland, Sue Johnson and John Kellum answering the question, "What do white folks need to know?" This is an exact quote from David Jordan of Providence Baptist Church. The question, "What do white folks need to know?" will be the topic of our next session of ongoing dialogue as a community regarding racism in this country. The date of the next session has not been determined but please stay tuned.

You are invited to attend and feel free to invite family and friends to this needed event! If you can clear your schedule to be available for at least an hour on Tuesday, August 25th at 11:00 a.m. please join us. I know you will find the history and conversations educational and relevant to our discussions on why race matters.

Friendship Missionary Baptist Church is located at 3400 Beatties Ford Road., Charlotte, NC. There is plenty of free parking.
