Charlotte Seen will publish its first - ever publication titled 'The Story.' The Publication will double as the itinerary for all five days of Charlotte Fashion Week and is a way for you to present your life, your talents, and your story. This publication will be a great way to be noticed here in Charlotte. The featured stories will highlight interesting people of all walks of life and will include a writer, a photoshoot, and one full page in the publication. Also we would like to invite you to walk the runway on Wednesday evening (optional). For only 500.00 you will receive four copies of the publication as well as four reserved seats on Wednesday Evening.

There are limited pages available. If you are interested, please write to rita@charlotteseen.com
