In recent weeks, under the cover of the Primary campaigns and elections, there has been an aggressive push by some in our community to make Ann Clark the permanent superintendent.

School Board member Eric Davis & School Board candidate Jeremy Stephenson and other members of the wealthy, privileged establishment have commenced a campaign to install Ann Clark as the permanent superintendent without so much as seeking the input of the other communities that make up Charlotte, including the African American community whose children make up the largest racial group in CMS.

Please remember, along with former Superintendent Peter Gorman, Ann Clark was the architect in closing 10 of our African-American schools.

Ann Clark herself said she did NOT want the job she was merely filling a void and would leave upon her contract ending.

We need to call and write ALL 9 Board members to let them know how WE feel about not being included in this process. We also need to sign up to speak at the next school board meeting at 6pm on Tuesday, October 13 at the Charlotte-Mecklenburg

Government Center to express our concerns. Call the Board's office at \(980\) 343-5139 and ask to be placed on the list of speakers for the October 13th Board meeting.
