Mecklenburg County's Learning and Development Team will hold its next leadership breakfast on Thursday, Oct. 22 at the Charlotte Marriott SouthPark from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m.

The event will focus on the leadership competency of Change and Innovation: Leaders at the Roundtable. This will be an opportunity for managers and supervisors to learn from successful leaders within our community. I will serve on the panel, which will be moderated by Board of County Commissioners Chairman Trevor M. Fuller.

Additional panelists include:

- Bob Morgan, president and CEO of Charlotte Chamber,
- Dr. Joan Lorden, provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs at UNC-Charlotte,
- and Jennifer Loytty, director of premier services for public sector of Microsoft Corporation.

Charlotte-Mecklenburg Youth Council Provides Leadership Opportunities for Students

Mecklenburg County contracts with Generation Nation to develop a program to engage youth in meaningful involvement in County policy and decision-making. This program, called Charlotte-Mecklenburg Youth Council, is available to County Commissioners and County staff to inform and give feedback about issues important to youth. Students are available to:

- Provide stakeholder perspectives, ideas and feedback on issues, policies and decisions impacting K-12 students
- Serve on task forces and committees
- Highlight issues important to youth and make recommendations for ideas and solutions

Please contact Amy Farrell at 704-343-6999 or amy@generationnation.org if you would like to refer issues to the Youth Council, have opportunities for youth participation, or to discuss how the Youth Council can be a resource for you.
