Dear Constituent,

Our state faces multiple challenges in the coming months and years. We have much work to do together. I encourage you to remain engaged do to Voter ID requirements becoming effective in the 2016 election cycle. That is why I have asked the North Carolina State Board of Elections Voter Outreach staff to do a Voter ID presentation here in Charlotte in our district. This is an opportunity for you to get accurate information. As well as, an opportunity to ask questions and address any concerns you may have with the new changes that will take effect in the 2016 election cycle. The details for the meeting are below. Please mark your calendars and plan to participate in this most important public meeting.
