“CITIZENS AND THE POLICE CAN WORK TOGETHER TO FIGHT CRIME”

Rep. Kelly M Alexander, Jr., in conjunction with the “Taking Back Our Community” steering committee and the Steward Creek Environmental Association (SCEA) announces the next in an ongoing series of town hall meetings. Attorney General Roy Cooper will speak on how the police and the community can work together to deter crime. Following his remarks, the Attorney General will entertain questions from the audience.

This is the latest in a series of town halls on crime that have been going on since August. These community meetings have engaged over 300 citizens, elected officials, youth and young adults, the business community, houses of worship and neighborhood leaders in a concerted effort to deter crime through education and engagement.
