Holiday Special
EditionDear Friends:*

Thanksgiving is a day to reflect on the many blessings God has bestowed upon our lives. Although every day should be a day of thanksgiving, this national holiday is set aside to give thanks on the fourth Thursday of November each year. On Thursday, November 26, 2015, families and friends will gather together for a day of feasting and fellowship.

There are many things we often take for granted. It is the simple things in life we should learn to appreciate- waking up in the morning, breathing fresh air, enjoying God's beautiful nature, and so much more! Having gratitude is a step closer to living a joyful life.

I encourage you to count your blessings this Thanksgiving. Show gratitude to your family and friends on this joyous affair. Strive to be an inspiration to others and make others happy. Express not only your concerns, but your thankfulness in prayer. Fill your heart with peace and love. Although every day may not be good, find the good in every day.

I have so much to be grateful for- and that includes you! I cannot achieve anything without the support of my constituents. Thank you very much for your continued support!

Please continue to refer to the North Carolina General Assembly website www.ncleg.net. You will be able to track legislation, sign up for committee notices and review the in depth citizen's guide.

I encourage you to contact us with your thoughts, comments, or suggestions. Please feel free to have others join in on conversation by sending contact information to Joyce.Waddell@ncleg.net.

I look forward to hearing from you!

Happy Thanksgiving

Once again, the air is chilled
We share with some the things we feel
The calm while gathered in a room
Good laughs within a world of gloom
No matter what, we still must pray
For love and peace and joy each day
So let's give praise for blessed living
And be happy this Thanksgiving.

"In all things give thanks."
1 Thessalonians 5:18
