

20 YEARS OF
CITIZEN
AWARENESS AND EDUCATION

Much has changed in the last twenty years, but one requirement has remained constant – the importance of citizen engagement in local government. Whether newly arrived to Charlotte Mecklenburg or a life-long resident, we all have the right and the responsibility to be involved in our local government.

The League of Women Voters of Charlotte Mecklenburg invites you to register for our Civics 101 program. These five weekly sessions are designed for you to learn about our local government: City, County, County Court and CMS Board of Education. During these sessions, speakers with current and former experience describe the function and share their experiences. The fifth session is when Taylor Batten and Rick Thames of the Charlotte Observer bring us up-to-date on the newspaper’s responsibility to inform citizens. This is particularly important in 2016.

The registration will be on a first-come, first-served basis for a maximum of 60 attendees. The price for the five sessions, including materials, snacks for the first four sessions and a catered dinner at the last one, is $60. The link to the Civics 101 registration is: <http://goleaguego.org/Civics.html> .

The sessions run from 6:15 to 8:30 P.M. The dates and days are:
