Dear Friends,

I hope each of you had a safe and happy holiday season. As we all settle into the new year, please take a moment to read about what my team and I are working on in Washington. I am honored to be your voice in Congress and look forward to continuing to serve you with pride, tenacity and integrity. It is an honor to represent you in Congress for a second year and together we will make the most of the year ahead.

In Friendship,

Legislative Action

Key Vote: Congresswoman Alma S. Adams voted against legislation to override the President's veto of H.R. 3762. This legislation would undermine critical components of the Affordable Care Act and would defund Planned Parenthood. This is the 63rd vote to repeal or undermine the Affordable Care Act, and the 12th vote to attack women's health care in the 114th Congress. Shortly before the vote, Congresswoman Adams spoke on the House floor in opposition to the legislation.

Committee Action: On January 12th at a Nutrition Subcommittee hearing, Congresswoman Adams discussed the need for seniors participating in the SNAP program to have a simpler process for documenting their medical bills in order to receive additional SNAP benefits. She also highlighted the need for more job training programs for childless adults who receive SNAP benefits.

Congresswoman Adams met with Charlotte Mayor Jennifer Roberts and Charlotte city officials in Washington, D.C. to discuss federal priorities for the city.

Congresswoman Adams held the first Bipartisan Congressional HBCU Caucus meeting of 2016 with John King, the Acting Secretary of Education. The Caucus expressed their priorities for HBCUs.

Last week, Congresswoman Adams joined other Democratic Colleagues to introduce the Fair Day in Court for Kids Act which ensures minors and other vulnerable populations have access to legal representation in immigration proceedings.

Federal Grants

Billions of dollars in grants and loans are distributed by the federal government to organizations throughout the country. If your organization is interested in applying for federal funding, please contact my office. We are happy to guide you through the grants process and to provide a letter of support for your application. Contact my Grant Director Kim Ratliff Kim.ratliff@mail.house.gov.

Charlotte Assistant City Manager, Ron Kimble, was Congresswoman Adams' guest at the October new member meeting to share his family's story during Domestic Violence Awareness month.

Congresswoman Adams and Congresswoman Diana DeGette (CO) met to fulfill the friendly wager the pair put on Super Bowl 50. Congresswoman Adams promised Bojangles, Cheerwine, cookies from Carolina Cookie Company and a hat from her personal collection if the Panthers did not win the Super Bowl.
