

Dear Stephen,

The Emerging City Champions Fellowship is currently accepting applications from young civic innovators (ages 19-35) in the 26 communities where Knight invests, who have ideas to strengthen urban mobility, improve public spaces and enhance civic engagement in their cities. The fellowship closes for applications on April 15, 2016.

Led by nonprofit 880 Cities and supported by Knight Foundation, the fellowship offers innovators the skills, knowledge and support they need to make immediate and lasting impact in their communities. It is open to anyone who meets the following criteria:

1. Applicants must be between the ages of 19-35.
2. The project must take place in or benefit one of the 26 communities where Knight invests.
3. Projects must contribute to improved urban mobility or public space.
4. Applications must include a multimedia submission that describes the project.

To apply to the fellowship go to emergingcitychampions.com by April 15, 2016. Take a look at this blog for more information and please spread the word through your networks.

Best,

Charles Thomas
Knight Foundation
Program Director for Charlotte

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list