Dear Steve,

Our city (Charlotte) has been in the news sharing the story of racial division and unrest that Our Nation has been facing and reporting. Maybe together we can find solutions. Some say peaceful rallies, protests, prayer. Others say riots, war, fighting and boycotts. The answer is probably some hybrid of all of these. There is no peace apart from war. The children of God also fought and for those only speaking peace and prayer, well, I believe that we have some understanding to do.

As a leader in the community people are asking me what to do. I don't know. I hope that together we can find an answer.

If you are interested in coming to the table to have open discussions set on finding solutions please opt-in. I may simply notify you of some other organizations looking to make a difference. We may decide to organize a separate meeting. I am open to your suggestions and remain in constant prayer.

I will not petition this group again with this info. Only those opting in will receive any additional notifications on this matter.
