Steve,

Perhaps this flyer/communication better describes the connection/impact Doug is trying to make here. Let me know what you think.

Regards,

Rob

THE KALEIDOSCOPE GROUP

Real People • Real Conversations • Real Issues • Real Change

On Wednesday, February 8th, please join me, Doug Harris, CEO of The Kaleidoscope Group, at the Levine Museum of the New South for an evening of discussion and fellowship as I reconnect with old friends and meet some new ones, here in the great city of Charlotte.

After 35 years based in Chicago, helping clients across the nation and around the world maximize the power of Diversity and Inclusion (D&I), I've recently moved to Charlotte. As I get acquainted, I'm encouraged by how many are committed to understanding that to get an inclusive, unified Charlotte, that we must develop our understanding of how the unique perspectives and background of people constantly shape how we see each other, ourselves and our city as a whole. A thriving Charlotte, one where both the community and economy reach new heights, will require that all citizens unite to move Charlotte forward. In the few weeks I've lived here, I've been energized by the efforts underway by so many to achieve this goal, and I'm excited to join you in this effort with the full support of

The Kaleidoscope Group.

The Kaleidoscope Group is a full-service Diversity and Inclusion Consulting firm headquartered in Chicago. We've worked with over 300 clients, from Fortune 500 companies to municipalities to nonprofits, to foster inclusive cultures and achieve bottom line results. I'm looking forward to putting our expertise and experience to work for the communities and organizations in Charlotte.

Please join me on Wednesday, February 8th at 5:30 pm at the Levine Museum of the New South, located at 200 E. 7th Street, in Charlotte as I introduce myself and The Kaleidoscope Group, followed by a complimentary social hour. It promises to be a fun and insightful evening.

If you are unable to join me during this event, I would still love to connect with you. Please feel free to reach out to me at info@kgdiversity.com.

Warmest regards,

Doug Harris
CEO
