Good afternoon,

February marks Black History Month! Each year we celebrate the Black lives and leaders who are breaking down barriers every day.

Join us in celebrating by highlighting African American artists from North Carolina. As a life-long artist, gallery owner, and art professor of 40 years, I have seen our collective history reflected through the work of local artists.

Share your local hero with me by visiting my website. Follow me on Facebook and Twitter for a showcase of artists and their works all month long.

Warmest Regards,

Congresswoman Alma S. Adams, Ph.D.
