Supporting Male Educators of Color in STEM Across North Carolina

Duke Energy awarded grants totaling $2.7 million to more than 70 education institutions and organizations throughout North Carolina. Profound Gentlemen received support to develop and retain an additional 25 highly effective male educators of color teaching STEM in North Carolina. The grants, from the Duke Energy Foundation, enhance programs and initiatives focused on science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) learning, childhood reading proficiency and workforce development.
