

We also see an opportunity for growth. In being authentic, we noticed there was a 20% gap between satisfaction in schools and satisfaction of the education profession. Our Gentlemen are eagerly excited to be in the profession but experience some major challenges within their school community.

Therefore, we understand our part in strengthening the relationship between our Gentlemen and the schools they serve. This will take time and establishing relationships will be important. Overall, we are pressing forward in providing a better PG!

The PG Book Club Summer Reading Series: "Unopened Books - Multiplying the 2%"

This summer, we will be reading Unopened Books by one of PG's Gentlemen and longtime supporter, Jermaine Gassaway!

Interesting Fact: PG was honored to be a part of the book's thought team. Together, we decided on the title, pictures, and got a preview of the book's content! You WANT to read this book!

Book Club will begin on July 24th to August 18th.

The Tools to Change the World

Earlier this month Profound Gentlemen received a grant from the African American Community Foundation (AACF)! This partnership with the AACF will give over 50 high school students across the Charlotte area access to the revolutionary app, GAMEPLAN. GAMEPLAN is an app made to give students a simple and straightforward way of creating resumes, exploring careers, and connecting to colleges and Universities across the country.
