Friends,

I wanted to take a moment to say thank you for all of the support provided throughout this campaign effort. We realize that we could not have made it this far without your prayers and unwavering belief in our quest to become the next City Council representative of District 2. Since the beginning, our approach has been to listen, build trust and offer specific solutions to the most pressing issues for District 2 residents.

Over the last several months, it has become abundantly clear through our recent endorsement from the Black Political Caucus, community forums and other events that Justin is the right person, at the right time to lead the residents of Charlotte's West Side. Our friends and neighbors have expressed their excitement to have a candidate with a thorough grasp on policy and the ability to offer unique solutions and a new approach to issues that have plagued the district for many years.

BPC Endorsement

This has been an amazing journey and I know that you are as excited as I am about the difference that Justin will make on the City Council and the positive impact that will be made for the myriad of communities within the District. We could not have made it this far without you and will need your continued support through Election Day, September 12, 2017.

Your continued support will help to ensure that Justin is elected and that the residents of District 2 have a stable and prosperous future.

Thank you and have a great day!
