Creating a New Class of Entrepreneurs

Join us to welcome in a New Class of Charlotte Entrepreneurs & Innovators

We're kicking-off the NEW Fall session of the 2017 City Startup Labs' Center of Excellence with a Pitch Event on September 7th.

If you're able, come meet and support a new class of African American millennial entrepreneurs, innovators, techies, inventors, makers, designers and creatives.

By the way, prior CSL pitch events have been some of the most exciting in the city. [See which startup idea took the top prize at pitch event in Charlotte].

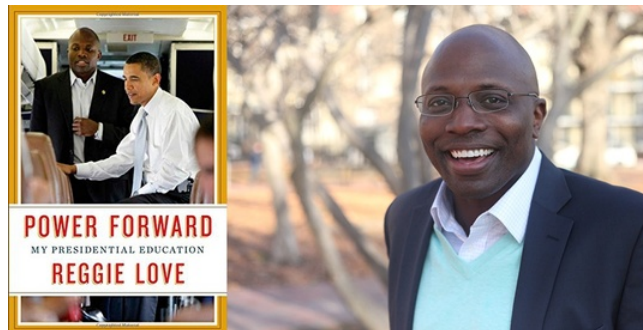

Reggie Love, former President Obama body man and author of Power Forward: My Presidential Education, will be the event keynote and guest panelist.

The NEW Class starts on Friday, September 22nd @ UNCC
