

Stand with Women and Families Women's Equality Day March

Gloria De Los Santos [gloria@actionnc.org]

Sent: Monday, August 14, 2017 10:54 PM

To: Jean Busby [Jean@actionnc.org]; Gloria De Los Santos [gloria@actionnc.org]

Join us Saturday, August 26th at the American Tobacco Durham, NC for the Women's Equality March on Saturday, August 26, 2017, from 9:30 am to 1:00 pm! We will celebrate the victories for equality that women have won and rededicated ourselves to eliminating all discrimination against women. This year's theme is "WE RISE NOW!"

Participants will gather at 9:30 am at the Durham County Register of Deeds Office on 414 E Main St and march to the American Tobacco Campus on Blackwell St to enjoy a terrific rally, excellent speakers, performance artists, skits, and live music bands,

In conjunction with this event, you're also invited to attend a press conference August 24th at 10 am at CCB Plaza Downtown Durham and Women's Empowerment meeting and training scheduled August 25th at the Mission Post at 6 pm.

Speakers

Invited Guest Speaker: Congresswoman Maxine Waters

Speakers:

Keynote Speaker: Award Winning Author and Commentator on TV One's NewsOne Now, Dr. Avis Jones DeWeever

Mayor-Pro Tempore Cora Cole-McFadden

County Commissioner Brenda Howerton

NC Senator Erica Smith-Ingram

Erin Dale Byrd with the BlackWomen's Roundtable

Nia Wilson from Spirit house

Desemera Gatewood NAACP

Beth Messersmith with MomsRising

Tara Romano with NCNARAL

Pilar Rocha-Goldberg with EICentro

Dr. Michelle Laws with Action NC

Entertainment by NuEpiphany and Walltown Children's Theater.

Sponsored by

Action NC, NC National Organization for Women, NC Black Women's Roundtable, NARAL Pro-Choice NC, NC Women Advance, NC Women United, NC4ERA, NC Women Matter, Durham County Women's Commission, Working America and WomenNC

For more information please contact Gloria De Los Santos with Action NC.

919-794-8210

Gloria De Los Santos

Durham Director

Action NC

www.actionnc.org

