Friend,

EARLY VOTING STARTS TOMORROW! Have you heard that some great local and national groups who represent many of our Charlotte families, minorities, workers, activists, and developers are supporting Justin as their preferred candidate in the District 2 race? Take a look below to see who and why.

Black Political Caucus of Charlotte-Mecklenburg - "We believe these candidates best promote and enhance the welfare of the African-American community for the city of Charlotte and will continue to push for economic growth and increased accountability in public policy."

Southern Piedmont Central Labor Council (AFL-CIO) - "represents the interests of working people...and will advocate for social and economic justice" @SouthernPiedmontCLC

Real Estate & Building Industry Coalition - "Our endorsed candidates are supportive of continued economic growth and real estate and building industry in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg area."

The Collective PAC - "We believe our candidates serve our mission of wanting to build black political power"

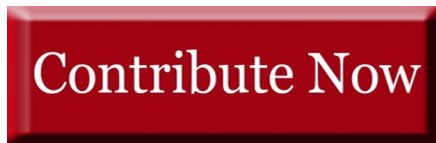

New South Progressives - "our candidates are working towards solutions to advance equity, justice, and inclusiveness for all Charlotteans"
