Dear Steve,

Over the past few months, I have been all over Charlotte listening to our neighbors' concerns about the future of our city. Citizens like you have made it clear what they want from City Council. Charlotteans want a city that is safer, more equitable, and offers economic opportunities for all of its residents.

From serving as the Councilmember for District 5 and throughout my campaign, I have consistently demonstrated my commitment to this vision. If elected to an At-Large seat, I will build upon that commitment by continuing to work with CMPD and community leaders, in order to ensure safer neighborhoods, fight for quality & affordable housing, and work with business leaders to provide jobs in underserved areas.

During the campaign, I have received endorsements from:

- The Mecklenburg County Black Political Caucus
- New South Progressives

- Que Pasa Mi Gente
- LaunchProgress PAC
- VoteProChoice
- Run for Something

All these organizations believe in me and my vision to impact positive change on our beautiful city.

I hope I have earned your trust. But I need YOUR help.

As we push toward the Democratic Primary on September 12, I ask that you please contribute to the campaign. We must meet our necessary fundraising goal to continue spreading the word about this historic campaign. Your support is vital in ensuring that we secure a victory for a better Charlotte.

Thank you for your support!
