Dear Steve,

With our victory on Tuesday I have become an official Democratic nominee for the Charlotte City Council at Large. My friends, with your encouragement, help, support and guidance we survived a grueling primary and will now fight hard to win a full term in November. It is a victory that I hold dear to my heart and I honor your assistance with my gratitude and love.

We overcame doubt and adversity by sticking to morals and principles, as noted in the Charlotte Observer. That my friends, will never change. I will always strive to do what is right and what is just for every resident of Charlotte. All residents and visitors must be respected and included in our collective prosperity. My steadfast message and vision for our great city will be sharply focused and will now be crystal clear. I will work tirelessly to build a prosperous economic environment throughout the city, good infrastructure to keep up with the growth and safety and trust in our community.

We must move quickly to transition to our "Fall Strategy", replenish our campaign funds and expand our campaign team in order to run strong and win in November. We earned a solid victory throughout all sections of Charlotte on September 12th but there are some areas in which we need to work harder to earn the voters trust and support. With your continued support it will happen.

Thank you so much!
