SPECIAL EDUCATION EVALUATIONS

Have you ever wondered why your child receives so many different evaluations during the Individualized Education Program (IEP) process? This workshop will explain the basics of the evaluation process and commonly used assessments.

APR 4

STRATEGIES FOR A SUCCESSFUL IEP MEETING

Individualized Education Program (IEP) meetings can be a stressful time for parents of children with disabilities. This workshop is designed to help parents, caregivers, and professionals working with children with disabilities feel better equipped to advocate successfully during these meetings.

SCHOOL DISCIPLINE FOR CHILDREN WITH DISABILITIES

Suspensions from school impede your child's learning and overall academic achievement, and often are related to your child's disability. This workshop will help you understand the laws protecting children with disabilities and how to better advocate for your child's emotional and behavioral needs.

Bring an open mind, questions,
and, if you wish, your lunch.

For parents, caretakers, professionals,
and all who advocate for children
