PSA/MEDIA RELEASE

September 13, 2017

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN FOR CANNABIS HOST EDUCATIONAL EVENT ON OCTOBER 1 IN CHARLOTTE

Charlotte - The community is invited to join women who are patients, mothers, wives and activists who desire to learn and better understand more about hemp and cannabis. There is much history that lead to the prohibition of a plant that historically offered sustenance, medicine and economic value to human kind.

What is the truth about this plant? Why is it such taboo?

How does it help patients? How can I engage in activism if I choose?

Special guests will be speaking on relevant topics of interest.

- Drug Policy, History & Reform
- What is this plant? How can it help me ?
- The ABC' s in CBD and THC
- Women in the emerging hemp industry.

Open to the public and tickets are available on EventBrite for $10.00 each. This event is for awareness and public education. A percentage of the proceeds from ticket sales will be donated to the North Carolina Women for Cannabis (www.NCW4C.org) to support statewide efforts for legalization for patients to have safe access to medical cannabis. NO CANNABIS will be at this event. HEMP and other natural product vendors are invited to participate.
