“I am ready to build the bridges to help Charlotte attain its full potential of what a modern American and international city looks like. I believe in Charlotte. Will you believe with me?”

– Braxton Winston

About Braxton Winston

Braxton was born in Camp Lejeune, N.C., where his father was stationed in the United States Marine Corps. After the family moved to Brooklyn, N.Y., he attended public schools, then graduated from Phillips Academy Andover and Davidson College. He's a union stagehand and camera operator for the Charlotte Hornets. He and his wife Sheena are the proud parents of three young children.
