Happy 3rd Birthday PG!

Thank You!

To every like on social media, invite to networking opportunities, donor/sponsor or individual give, any Gentlemen apart of our organization, board and staff members, we would like to thank you all for your support. You are a big part of our accomplishments here at Profound Gentlemen.

Keep Up With PG

Our Co-Founder Mario Shaw had the chance to speak with CLTales. He spoke on the difference of PG between other educational organizations as well as the focuses of PG. Find out some key points on how and why PG began and why our program is important to him, as well as the male educators and the students they serve.

#OnTheTableCLT Highlights

Getting into the conversation with some of our neighborhood leaders about the male educators of color. We spoke on the reasons our educators leave the educational system, and some of the ways we could help with retention. We also, opened the floor to a few of our male educators of color who teach in our communities, on their importance of the impact they hold on the student.
