

UNC CHARLOTTE
College of Health and Human Services

THE THIRD ANNUAL

NC STATE REPRESENTATIVE BEVERLY EARLE MINORITY HEALTH CONFERENCE:

— ADDRESSING EQUITY & SOCIAL JUSTICE —

February 23rd, 2018 | 9am - 4pm | UNC Charlotte Lucas Room

Featured Panelists

Toussaint Romain, Attorney, Charlotte Public Defender's Office
Dr. Peter M. Wherry, Pastor, Mayfield Memorial Missionary Baptist Church
Dr. Keith Cradle, Program Manager, Mecklenburg County Sheriff's Office
Brisa Hernandez, Director-Community Research, Carolinas HealthCare System
Cheryl Emanuel, Program Manager, Mecklenburg County Health Department
Adrian Sundiata, Consultant, Founder/Crossroads Charter School
Wendy Pascual, Camino Community Center

The conference provides a community engaged platform that promotes diversity, disseminates health disparities research findings, programs, and tools, and increases awareness on health disparities in the Charlotte area. The conference includes: a panel discussion on health disparities/social justice and one on oral health.

Featured Activities

Fitness
Education

Poster
Session

Health
Screenings

Preferred RSVP by February 16th: <http://publichealth.uncc.edu/healthdisparitiesevent>

$10 Daily Parking available at Cone Deck Visitor Lot

Questions? Contact: cpiper1@uncc.edu