LUESA University Set for March 13

The Mecklenburg County Land Use and Environmental Services Agency (LUESA) will hold its fifth annual LUESA University for employees on Tuesday, March 13. The daylong event will take place at the Central Piedmont Community College main campus (Overcash Building). The cross-training and collaboration, hosted this year by Code Enforcement, is only open to County Commissioners, advisory board members and LUESA employees.

The event will feature sessions on the history of uptown Charlotte and the four wards, greenways, Livable Meck, common code violations and the CATS transportation master plan.

All LUESA divisions (Air Quality, Code Enforcement, GIS, Solid Waste and Storm Water Services) will remain open during the event, with staff rotating to ensure no service interruption to our customers.

For more information, contact Sophia Hollingsworth, Code Enforcement Customer Service Manager, at 980-314-3160 or Sophia.Hollingsworth@MecklenburgCountyNC.gov.

A Little Furniture Goes a Long Way

Mecklenburg County Child Support Enforcement (CSE) works every day to enhance the lives of children and families through the efficient provision of child support services. They also strive to offer an environment that's warm, welcoming and comfortable for its customers.

Thanks to a strong partnership with Ikea, the department recently received new furniture for its children's play area and interview rooms at its office on Executive Center Drive.

I would like to thank Ikea for its generous donation. I know the furniture will go a long way in helping to provide a great atmosphere for our customers.

For more information about the partnership, contact CSE Director Joan Kennedy at 980-314-8750 or Joan.Kennedy@MecklenburgCountyNC.gov.
