

St. Peter's Episcopal Church Social Justice Team

invites you to a Film Night Screening of

Shell Shocked:

A New Orleans Documentary about Youth and Gun Violence

Wednesday, March 21, 6:00 PM

New Orleans, Louisiana has one of the highest per capita murder rates in the United States. For the last decade, statistics have shown murder rates four to six times higher than the national average. Eighty percent of the victims are black males, mostly in their teenage years.

Shell Shocked features ideas, opinions, and testimonies from activists, community leaders, police, city officials, youth program directors, family and friends of victims, and children who live in these violent circumstances. A facilitated discussion will follow the 60-minute film and include guest panelists:

Former State Senator Malcolm Graham

President, Cynthia Graham Hurd Foundation

and

Former City Councilman Billy Maddalon

Businessman and Community Activist

- St. Peter's Episcopal Church 115 W. 7th at N. Tryon streets (next to Discovery Place) in Center City Charlotte.
- Join us for a contemplative service of Evening Prayer at 5:30 PM before the film starts at 6:00 PM.
- Free parking at TransAmerica Square Garage, 401 N. Tryon (across from St. Peter's 7th Street entrance, bring garage ticket to the event).

St. Peter's Episcopal Church
www.st-peters.org | 704.332.7746