

SPARK IDEAS INTO ACTION!

NEIGHBORHOOD EXCHANGE

SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 8:30-11:30AM | SMS CATERING EVENT ATRIUM, 1764 NORLAND ROAD, CHARLOTTE NC

Great ideas create enthusiasm but acting on them creates real change. Hear from ordinary people whose ideas sparked extraordinary change in their communities. Join us for the Neighborhood Exchange: Spark Ideas Into Action breakfast and panel discussion, a free event sponsored by the City of Charlotte.

Home(town) Security:

A presentation by Majora Carter

Majora is a leading urban revitalization strategist, real estate developer, and Peabody award-winning broadcaster. After establishing Sustainable South Bronx and Green For All (among other organizations), she opened a private consulting firm to help spread the message and success of social enterprise and economic development in low-status communities - which was named Best for the World by B-Corp in 2014.

LOCAL PANELISTS

Amanda Zullo

*Founder and Executive Director
Pop Up Produce*

John Lincoln

*Vice Chair
Monroe Road Advocates (MoRA)*

John Martin

*CEO and Founder
Young Black Leadership Alliance*

Amalia Deloney

*Founder and Principal
Co-Learning for Action Project*