#SummerReadingCLT Campaign Aims to Keep Reading Top of Mind this Summer

Learning all year long is critical for student achievement. In fact, students who don't keep reading over summer break can fall one or more months behind, while their classmates who continue reading move further ahead. More than half of the reading gaps of 9th graders can be explained by summer learning loss during elementary school.

The good news is that summer reading isn't about homework or tests; it can simply be about the JOY of reading! This summer, Read Charlotte will launch an awareness campaign to help keep reading top of mind for parents, while offering tips to keep kids interested and links to community programs and resources all in one place!

We know that fostering a love of reading is key. Let's ban together to provide the support and encouragement to empower families across Mecklenburg County this
