Senator Joyce Waddell Files Senate Bill 87, ABC Laws Modernization/PED Study

Charlotte, NC- Tuesday, February 19 Senator Joyce Waddell filed Senate Bill 87, ABC Laws Modernization/PED Study at the General Assembly. This bill would require the merger of ABC systems in a county with two or more ABC systems. In addition, to eliminate the purchase-transportation permit for liquor and provide local ABC boards more flexibility in charging delivery fees. Including the option of operating ABC stores on Sundays and liquor tastings in store. This is the first legislative consideration of the 2019-2020 session for updating the current ABC system for North Carolina Liquor sales.
