Thank you for an incredible night!

Last night, in the gorgeous Kimpton Tryon Park Hotel, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg community came together around early literacy. From spoken word to celebrations to an inspiring keynote speech by the incredible Dr. Michael McAfee of Policy Link, we are more united than ever. It is possible to get 80% of our students reading proficiently by third grade when we align in targeted ways. Thank you to the hundreds of people who #CommitTo80 and encourage others to do the same. Read Charlotte is humbled by the support of the local companies, organizations and individuals rallying behind this effort. Together, we can give ALL children the opportunity for a limitless life.
