I want to ask you to make a donation, but first, let me explain why this is so important:

Steve -

In a moment, I'm going to ask you to make a donation to our campaign ahead of our official FEC deadline. But first, I hope you'll let me explain why this request, especially today, is so important.

This week, I announced that our campaign won't accept a dime of corporate PAC money. Zero.

For many campaigns, that's a significant source of money. But it's that very money that is poisoning our democracy.

Instead, we're going to fund this campaign the right way — with grassroots supporters donating whatever they can afford. We'll do this $5, $10, $25 at a time.

Our Republican opponents are unlikely to make this same pledge, and this race is going to be expensive. But we are on the side of what's right on this campaign. If we stand together, we can win this race.

At the end of this month, we have an FEC deadline. After the deadline, we have to report how much we raised, which will be a big signal of our momentum. So that's why I need to ask:

Will you make a \$3 donation right now before our official FEC deadline? How much we report is critical.

Thank you in advance for making a donation. Your support is humbling.

Yours in this fight,

Dan
