This intimate space and time for youth advocates and educators is designed to place the power of Professional Development back into their hands, encouraging them to share ideas, admit challenges, offer solutions, invest in each other's knowledge and experiences, and grow accordingly without interruption.

Regardless of your specific role, if you are a teacher or administrator in early childhood education, we welcome you to this grassroots day of professional learning!

What is an EdCamp?

Edcamps are free "unconferences" of, by, and for all educators/advocates. No experts, just experience. Participants serve as the presenters in this forum, so get ready to:

- Set your own agenda
- Connect with participants
- Facilitate a session of your choice
- Move freely among sessions "Rule of Two Feet"
- Earn In-Service credits
- Be inspired and Discover you
