[Issues Survey] Let me know what you think. I'm going to review the results in a few days.

Steve -

Our new campaign is off to a great start. We have the momentum and grassroots enthusiasm on our side.

But this race is bigger than just a seat in Congress. It's about fighting for our shared values across a broad range of issues.

It's about making sure every child can go to a great public school, no matter their ZIP code. It's about lowering health care costs for American families, protecting those of us with pre-existing conditions and lowering prescription drug prices. It's about responding to one of the greatest moral issues of our time, climate change, with clean energy solutions that can make it through Congress and into law. And that's just the start.

Today, I want to hear from you. Tell me what issues are most important to you by taking our new survey, and I'll review the results in a few days.

Take the first official issues survey of our new campaign. We want to know what issues are top of mind for you right now. What are you most concerned about?

Thanks for being in this fight with us and making your voice heard. I look forward to seeing your response!

Yours in this fight,

Dan
